

No Matter Where You Go, There You Are
©2009 Mathis-Kaat-Wohlert

CHORUS

No matter where you go, there you are.
At work or home, or driving in your car,
You can't run from God, no matter who you are,
No matter where you go, there you are.

VERSE 1

You might be a businessman or play in a rock & roll band,
You might be engineer, working in a far off land,
You might be the President or maybe a movie star,
But no matter where you go, there you are.

BRIDGE

You can run from your momma,
You can run from your dad,
You can run from your kids,
And hide out at your pad,
You can run from the government, and show a lot of flair,
But you can't run from yourself, or hide anywhere.

VERSE 2

God knows your heart, He sees your inner soul,
He knows from where you're coming and where you're going to go.
Find peace with God, no matter who you are,
Cause no matter where you go, there you are.
